GUIDELINES

The following guidelines will aid in the proper completion of this form.

1. This report must be prepared by the student's Pastor and submitted under confidential cover to the Institute's President.
2. The report ensures that the Institute is kept informed about the student's overall Christian testimony as observed by the Pastor.
3. The report will be added to the student's personal file and will provide invaluable information to the administration when assessing the student's suitability for continuation in school and graduation.
4. Pastors are encouraged to exercise great care, and to be detailed as possible in completing this form.
  - a. Place a tick next to the comment applicable to the student.
  - b. From sections IV and XI it is possible to identify more than one characteristic. You should place a tick next to as many characteristics as possible so as to give the clearest picture.
  - c. Use should be made of the lines designated for comments, especially when unwholesome attitudes, etc. are identified.
5. Forms should be returned within two (2) weeks after receiving them.
6. Pastors are encouraged to counsel with the student concerning any negative aspects of the report. (A note of this should be made on the form).
